

PLUCKY COACHING GROUPS

$1,000 per person / 3 attendees per group

OVERVIEW

Facilitated by Jen Dary, leadership coach, these small groups are organized by theme and capped at participants. The structure and rhythm to the sessions allow everyone to participate. Bring your tough days and invisible victories, all the team dynamics and your own career path wonderings. We'll coordinate our calendars to find a time that works for everyone in the group.

SPRING '22 GROUPS

Senior Managers: bimonthly from March - May
You've had a few years of experience managing or are a manager of managers.

Yikes Burnout: bimonthly March - May
You are burned out. Yikes.

New Managers: bimonthly from April - June
You consider yourself a new manager. Likely you've been managing for less than two years.

WORKING WITH PLUCKY

"I'm really grateful that I had a chance to be part of this excellent crew of humans."

"The first Small Group cohort was made up of awesome senior managers and I felt so lucky to have the chance to meet them all and learn about their individual paths! Jen is down to earth, fun, and real! What more could you want in a facilitator/coach?"

*"The Small Group experience was uniquely helpful for me. As someone who has a variety of supports - an executive coach, a therapist, a supportive manager - there was still something special about having a group of peers from different organizations to connect with."*
